25 EXPLANATION

26 Under federal law each state is allowed to place two statues
27 of its noted personages in statuary hall in the U.S. capitol.
28 Federal legislation enacted in 2000, Pub. L. No. 106-554,
29 provides that any state may request the joint committee on the 30 library of congress to approve the replacement of a statue the 31 state has provided for display in statuary hall in the U.S.
32 capitol.

33 This bill provides for the exchange of the statues of Samuel
34 Kirkwood and James Harlan, with statues of Alexander Clarke and 35 Norman Borlaug.

1 The bill creates two seven-member committees which are
2 responsible for raising, through donations, all funds necessary
3 to make these changes. The committee members will not receive
4 any compensation or reimbursement. Staff support is provided
5 by the department of cultural affairs.

6 The bill creates a capitol statuary fund in the state
7 treasury, administered by the department of cultural affairs.
8 The fund will finance committee operations, the change in 9 statuary, and provide for the perpetual care of all four 10 statues.

11 Samuel Jordan Kirkwood was Iowa's civil war governor,
12 also serving in the U.S. Senate and as the U.S. secretary
13 of the interior in 1881-1882. James Harlan was Iowa's first
14 superintendent of public instruction, a U.S. senator, and U.S.
15 secretary of the department of the interior. Alexander G.
16 Clark, the son of emancipated slaves, was a lawyer, newspaper
17 editor, and civil rights advocate; in addition, Clark served as
18 the U.S. minister to Liberia. Geneticist Dr. Norman E. Borlaug
19 developed strains of high-yield wheat and received the Nobel
20 Peace Prize as father of the "Green Revolution".
